Synopsis

The American dream of starting anew turns into a nightmare, for decorated Civil War veteran Jacob Hansen, when a deadly epidemic and threatening wildfire spread chaos in the small town of Friendship, Wisconsin. Acting as the sheriff, undertaker and pastor, Jacob will do all in his power to save his town, his family and his soul.

From the producers of THE WORST PERSON IN THE WORLD and debut director Dara Van Dusen comes a thrilling and epic story of Frontier Survival, starring Johnny Flynn and Academy Award nominee John C. Reilly.

Synopsis

In the year of our Lord 1858, a young, unusual governess named Winifred Notty arrives at the stunning gothic manor known as Ensor House. Winifred's responsibilities include teaching the children table manners and educating them about their family's history, all whilst hiding her psychopathic tendencies. Winifred assimilates into life at Ensor House, but as staff members begin to inexplicably disappear, the owners of the estate begin to wonder if there is something amiss with their new governess. Adorned with violent outbursts and impressive bloodbaths, the audience is left asking...who wouldn't go mad in Victorian society?

A twisted horror thriller, directed by Zachary Wigon and produced by Dan Kagan, producer of LONGLEGS.

Radical activists take over an energy company's annual gala in a skyscraper, seizing 300 hostages in order to expose the corruption of the hosts. Their just cause is hijacked by a zealous extremist within their ranks, who is ready to murder every last person in the building to send his anarchic message to the world. It falls to an ex-soldier turned window cleaner, Joey Locke (Daisy Ridley) – suspended 50 storeys up on the outside of the building – to save those trapped inside and take down the killers, whilst also finding a way to bring the corrupt energy moguls to justice.

A vertigo-inducing action thriller by a master of the genre, Martin Campbell, with contemporary action hero Daisy Ridley, CLEANER raises the stakes to new heights.

Synopsis

In 1970s Australia, Grace's life is troubled by misfortune and loss. After their mother dies during pregnancy, she and her twin brother, Gilbert, are raised by their paraplegic-alcoholic former juggler father, Percy. Despite a life filled with love, tragedy strikes anew when Percy passes away in his sleep. The siblings are forcibly separated and thrust into separate homes. Gilbert finds himself in the care of a cruel evangelical family, while Grace, grappling with intense loneliness, gradually withdraws into her shell, much like the snails she adopts. As the years pass, and despite new disappointments and sorrows, a glimmer of hope emerges when she strikes up an enduring friendship with an elderly eccentric woman called Pinky.

From Academy Award-winning animation writer and director, Adam Elliot, comes the poignant yet hilarious memoir of a lonely misfit called Grace Puddle.

Synopsis

In Borneo, at the edge of the tropical forest, Keria is given a baby orangutan that has been rescued from the palm oil plantation where her father works. At the same time, Keria's younger cousin Selaï comes to live with her and her father as he seeks refuge from the conflict between his indigenous tribe and logging companies. With the forest under greater threat than ever, Keria, Selaï and the little primate, now named Oshi, will have to face many obstacles in their battle against the planned destruction of their ancestral home.

Centering on an emotional journey of a girl, her father and a rescued baby orangutan, SAVAGES tells a heart-warming story of courage and hope, while giving pause for thought on the deepening crisis of rainforest destruction.
