JOSEPHINE BAKER

BIOPIC | IN PRE-PRODUCTION

NEW TITLE

JOSEPHINE BAKER brings to life the extraordinary journey of the American French icon who rose to dominate the most popular stages of the early 20th Century before becoming a global symbol of freedom and resistance. Torn between her "two loves," France and the United States, Josephine's audacity shattered boundaries and fuelled the fight for equality. Starring Grammy winner FKA Twigs, the film blends spectacle with an emotionally rich story of empowerment, celebrating an African American artist whose legacy continues to inspire generations.

From a childhood shaped by racial segregation and hardship, young Josephine Baker escapes 1920s America to find artistic freedom in dazzling Paris, where she becomes one of the most celebrated on-stage and film stars of her era. In 1951, when she returns to perform in the United States both a celebrity and heroine of the Second World War, Josephine must confront the complex status of her fame and the injustice she once fled.

(LE BOIS DE KLARA)

HISTORICAL DRAMA | COMPLETED | INTERNATIONAL RELEASE FROM: OCTOBER 15TH 2026 NEW TITLE

From Palme d'Or and Oscar-winning filmmaker Volker Schlöndorff comes the powerful story of three families living through the tormented 20th century. VISITATION is an intimate yet epic drama that delivers a striking reflection on how memory, trauma and hope imprint themselves on generations of women, men, and children. The film is set in a singular lakeside house that is both a sanctuary and a witness to historical upheavals – a silent symbol of the resilience of life.

A house on a lakeshore near Berlin stands witness to a century of events that reshape the world around it: the rise of Nazism and the devastation of war, Soviet occupation, the reunification of Germany, and the dawn of a new era. Carrying the marks of each new regime, generations come and go – a Jewish family, an opportunistic architect and his wife, an idealistic writer, and her granddaughter. Twelve destinies searching for peace and belonging, while the house remains a haven through decades of turmoil.

TRUE STORY DRAMA, THRILLER | IN POST-PRODUCTION

From Academy Award-winning director Danny Boyle (TRAINSPOTTING, SLUMDOG MILLIONAIRE, 28 YEARS LATER) and the producer of CONCLAVE, INK chronicles the explosive rise of The Sun, Britain's most controversial tabloid newspaper. A cinematic rollercoaster, about a group of visionaries and disruptors who had a radical idea for a new kind of news that would outrage the establishment and change the face of the world we live in today. Starring Jack O'Connell (SINNERS), Guy Pearce (THE BRUTALIST), and Claire Foy (THE CROWN).

Larry Lamb, a talented but long-overlooked newsman, is made an offer he cannot ignore: to edit a newspaper of his own. The proposal comes from Rupert Murdoch, a bold and disruptive outsider, scorned by the buttoned-up elite of late 1960s London. Determined to establish his own media empire, Murdoch has just acquired the floundering newspaper The Sun – and he's ready to shake up the establishment. Lamb assembles a renegade team of rebellious young journalists, including the fearless and brilliant Julie "Jules" Davies. Together, they unleash a new kind of journalism – provocative, unapologetic, and wildly popular. Out go the polite headlines, in come scandal, sex, and sensationalism. Sales soar and The Sun becomes a cultural phenomenon. But beneath the surface, a fierce power struggle brews between Lamb and Murdoch. Then, as the paper pushes boundaries and breaks taboos, the team faces a devastating crisis that strikes at the heart of their newsroom – forcing them to confront the human cost of their revolution.

MILO

DRAMA | IN POST-PRODUCTION

Starring Academy Award® winner Marion Cotillard (LA VIE EN ROSE), alongside rising talent Théodore Pellerin (NINO) and César winner Laure Calamy (CALL MY AGENT!), MILO is a poignant drama following a mother's attempt to reconnect with the son she was forced to abandon twenty years ago. Directed by acclaimed filmmaker Nicole Garcia (FROM THE LAND OF THE MOON), the film unfolds as a powerful exploration of buried wounds, impossible choices, and the fragile hope of rebuilding the bonds that define us.

Alice arrives in a quiet provincial town and takes a job at a local café, blending easily into a life that isn't hers. Her presence is no coincidence. She is there because of Milo, a young mechanic who works at a nearby garage. To him, Alice is a stranger. To her, he is someone tied to a past she has never truly left behind. As buried tensions begin to surface and Milo drifts toward uncertain ground, both are pushed to a crossroads: is it possible to rebuild a bond that shattered decades ago?

THE SANCTUARY

ACTION THRILLER | IN POST-PRODUCTION

Set in the lush yet dangerous borderlands of Southeast Asia, THE SANCTUARY is an action thriller from Xavier Gens (Under Paris - one of the most-watched non-English films of all-time on Netflix): a powerful story of survival, resilience, and quest for the truth led by a female journalist. As deadly secrets come to surface, THE SANCTUARY draws audiences into a striking cinematic world crafted by one of the most dynamic filmmakers in contemporary genre cinema.

The sole survivor of a violent ambush on a military convoy, Lena wakes up in a Thai hospital traumatised and alone. As she refuses repatriation, she escapes to an elephant sanctuary deep in the jungle, hoping to find peace. There she bonds with the local community, including Tangwa, a young Burmese girl refugee, and begins to rebuild her life. But whispers of a suspicious new orphanage draw Lena into a darker reality, and her investigation turns into a horrifying discovery. Lena takes matters into her own hands embarking on a fearless rescue mission in the heart of a criminal underworld, which will connect the horrors of her past with fresh danger.

THRILLER

COMPLETED

CONTROL is a gripping high-concept thriller starring James McAvoy (SPLIT, the X-MEN franchise) as a man caught in a race against the clock to escape the grip of a mysterious voice that threatens to destroy his life. Wallis Conway wakes up one morning hearing a voice in his head. The only problem is, it's not his own. Now, he has 12 hours to do exactly what the voice says... or devastating consequences will unfold.

Wallis Conway, a troubled doctor of neurology, is convinced his life has already hit rock bottom... until he wakes up one morning to the sound of a mysterious voice that he alone can hear. Calling herself The Conductor, the voice communicates with Wallis through a supposedly untraceable device planted in his brain. When The Conductor starts to blackmail Wallis with threats against his life and his family, he has no choice but to become her unwilling pawn. Under her control, he finds himself in a terrifying 12-hour race against time to fulfil a series of increasingly dangerous missions, with law enforcement hard on his heels. As her meticulous plan unfolds, Wallis starts to grasp sinister motives of The Conductor and those she works for.
