SWEET AS PIE

TVM 2020 – C5 PO E, LA5 PT G

City girl Hanna finds herself back on the farm, juggling her life in the city and the men in her life. But will she find the one person she needs to succeed – herself?

When Hanna unexpectedly inherits half a farm, her life is turned completely on its head. As curve balls go, this is a good one because the conditions of the will really take the biscuit! She must decamp from the city, move out to the sticks in rural Bavaria, and work the farm for four weeks with her cousin Max and worse still, she must spend every night there – otherwise everything goes to the church. The timing couldn't be worse for Hanna who is just about to invest in Alex's Munich coffee bar. Alex, incidentally, is the man of her dreams. But in typical Hanna style, she throws herself into the adventure and tries to get a handle on the urban/rural divide. However, the longer she spends in her old home, the clearer she comes to see herself and her own dreams. She not only uncovers a family secret, but also finds her great love. There is also some baking!

Adapted from the book by Angelika Schwarzhuber, this is a heartwarming and entertaining romantic comedy about belonging that will resonate with both young and old. With a highly relatable protagonist at its heart and excellent production values, the film highlights the contrast between rural and urban lifestyles with idyllic rural Bavaria and cosmopolitan Munich providing stunning backdrops and contemporary style. Featuring a raft of new talent, this is sure to appeal to a wide audience.

A PERFECT FIT

TVM 2020 – C5 PO E, LA5 PT G

Katharina has some pretty strong ideas about what she wants in a man and it's not Mike. And yet...

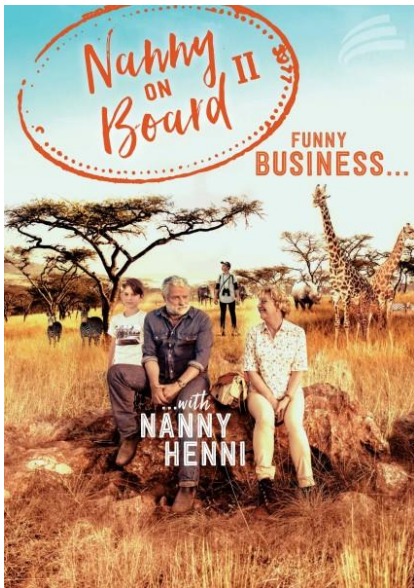

She may come from a rural village but Katharina is a big city girl now. Career-wise everything is going great for the young lawyer, her love life, on the other hand, needs some help. The 'problem' is that this attractive single woman has very exacting standards. Even in a city with 1.5 million inhabitants there are only twelve potential candidates – purely statistically speaking! And of those carefully selected online dates, none made the grade. The idea that she might meet Mr. Right in her hometown and by chance, at that, never even dawned on her. But as so often happens, life gets in the way of her plans. When Katharina must return home to look after her mother Johanna after she suffers a fall in her house, she hires carpenter Mike to adapt her parents' house for her mother's current needs. That her mother instantly relishes the idea of the good-looking carpenter as a potential son-in-law is actually an immediate black mark against him in Katharina's mind. Mike's easy-going, self-confident manner also rubs her up the wrong way initially. Nonetheless, things start to spark between them – even though a provincial craftsman does not meet any of the criteria set out by the status-conscious lawyer! For the romance to lead somewhere Katharina must decide what is truly important to her.

A romantic comedy with depth for the entire family, which puts a spotlight on current cross-generational topics with honesty and a twinkle in its eye. The director succeeds in getting precisely the right mix of gentle tones and fast witty dialog and thus creates the perfect balance between screwball comedy and tragicomedy.
